Notes for Edward Henry Cuffe:

In the joining papers of Edward it says that he has 4 younger brothers.

Before joining the R.H.A. he was a compositor by trade.

When he left R.H.A. in 1888 he went to America for 18mnths? There they had their second child Jessie May.

They had returned by 1890 when their third child Jack Arthur was born.

They had two more children but sadly they lost Jessie May, Ellen Sophia, William Sydney with the Diphtheria outbreak in the 1890's.

Edward succumbed to one of his bouts of Malaria and died two months before his eldest son

Generation 3 (con't)

George

Henry was married in 1911.

Edward died in Plumstead were he made his home after leaving the R.H.A. Whether he made any trips to Ireland to see his parents I've yet to find out?

He made the trip to USA in 1888 to see his parents, because they emigrated there in the early 1880's.

Notes for Amy Harriett Childs:

When Edward died Amy got a job as housekeeper to a man Called Pop. He lived at 7 Mabyn Road. Amy moved in and looked after him. It was a small house, two bedrooms, kitchen, dining room and the Best Room. Pop had one room (I think) Amy and her children had the rest of the house. Charlie was taken into Army School. Jack was in the Army. The photo of Jack was sent to the house by post, the name and address is still on it. After Pop died, Amy took over the rent on the house. After Florence May was married in 1927 she lived there too. All Florence May's children were born there. Amy died in this house. Joan used to share a room with her. Every night they would hold hands until Joan fell asleep. On this particular night Amy wouldn't hold Joan's hand. Next morning she had passed away. George Henry lived around the corner in Glenside Road.

Was still at 7 Maybn Road on the 1939 roll call for ration books, with Florence and Frank.

Generation 4 (con't)

She was born on 12 Dec 1902 in Poland. She died on 25 Feb 1974 in Amounderness, Lancashire, England.

Notes for Charles Anthony Cuffe:

Charles was 13 when his father Edward died. He was given a place in Army School because of his father's army record. He trained as a bandsman and played the trumpet. At the age of 14 he was sent to the North West frontier - Karachi, up the Khyber Pass with the 5th Northumberland Fusiliers. He was a bugle boy and batman to the colonel - Guy Du Maurier (Daphne Du Maurier's Uncle). In Jan 1915 he was sent to France at the age of 16. When his brother Jack Cuffe found out that he was in France he asked for Charles to be transferred to his own regiment - 2nd Royal Fusiliers. He came through the war unharmed except for trench foot and lungs affected by mustard gas. After the war he was sent with his Regiment to man the garrison at Danzig in the Army of Occupation. Danzig was made a Free City and was ruled from the League of Nations. It was here he met Martha Kuhn who was 17 years of age. Martha's family were furious that their only daughter was consorting with a British Tommy but Charles had the charm of the Irish and won them round. He was applying to marry an enemy alien when his regiment was sent to the Shannon to sort out the troubles in Ireland. He promised to send for his Martha as soon as he could. They were married at Woolwich in about 1920.
